PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 31.—Jack Milier's three-bagger with Kommers and Wagner on the runways in the sixth inning was the deciding smash in today's game with Brooklyn. Pittsburgh won, 3 to 2, getting their other run in the eighth on Kommers' walk and singles by Miller and Wilson. Rucker pitched nice ball, but the two infield hits by Kommers and Wagner and Miller's long hit lost for him. Brooklyn could do nothing with Robinson, who has beaten them regularly for two years. A wonderful back running catch by Kommers of Stengel's bid for a home run was a feature. Pittsburgh has secured Pitcher Maurice Kent from Brooklyn by waiver.
